Proceedings of the Town Committee.

The regular fortnightly meeting of the Township Committee was held on Friday evening last.

Present—Messrs. Ward, Beach, Unangst, Potter and Richards.

The proceedings of the previous meeting were read and approved.

An account against the town of $18, for stone furnished by William Parsons, was laid over until the next meeting.

An account of Jos. K. Oakes, Assessor, amounting to $400, was, after some discussion, laid over until the next meeting. In the discussion it was thought that there should be some better method of regulating the compensation of the Assessor than that now in vogue. The account of Mr. Oakes was shown to be very moderate when compared with other towns. Mr. Potter stated that the Assessor of East Orange received $700; Montclair, and that a much smaller township, in numbers, pays $300 for this service.

The following accounts were ordered paid:

Lockwood & Baxter, $35.08, for alms-house supplies.

W. P. Lyon, $15.00, for advertising.

A complaint was made that the plank sidewalk on Watseking Avenue, in front of the premises of Chas. P. Ross, had been removed. It was ordered that the owner be notified to put the sidewalk in repair, in accordance with the provisions of the Bloomfield sidewalk law.

Adjourned to meet no more this year.

Beautiful Snow.

Coincident with the heavy snow storm of Dec. 26, 1872, came to us on Friday last, another, the "first snow of the season," that seems to merit more than a passing allusion. It continued through Saturday, without making much headway until with the Sunday morning bells the sun peered out from tree and field all "clad in a mantle of ermine."

And then our staid citizens must needs turn out and break the roads and walks and albeit, in so doing, the Sabbath. Yet not a few there were who, through conscientious scruples or more than likely the usual apathy and indifference to the moral and physical well being of pedestrians, suffered the snow to lie on their sidewalk and be trodden into a pathway by the passing church-goer.

Skating.

There was good skating on Mr. Morris's new pond, on Christmas, but not many downtowners knew of it. This pond is so arranged that it can be flooded in case of a snow fall, and we expect it will become quite a resort for the "young men and maidens" of our town during this winter.

In Montclair we learn that the New Skating Park, near Watchung Station, opened on Christmas Day was a success. It is accessible from Bloomfield by the Midland cars. We hope to visit both the above resorts ere long and report accordingly.

President Grant has nominated Hon. Caleb Cushing as Minister to Spain in place of Gen. Sickles, resigned. The Tribune thinks "a better appointment could not have been made, if we regard merely the ability, the learning, and the experience of the nominee. Mr. Cushing is the most dexterous and industrious lawyer, the most cultivated linguist and diplomatist, at the disposition of the President. He is also thoroughly acquainted with the special question of the status of the Virginians and the relations between the United States and Spain growing out of the Washington protocol and the decision of the Attorney General. Indeed, if any criticism is to be made in regard to the appointment, it will probably have reference to Mr. Cushing's former intimate and confidential relations with the Spanish Government. But, for a diplomatist, the worst sins are those of ignorance, and as Mr. Cushing is sure to commit none of that kind, the appointment will be generally regarded as better than we had the right to expect.

ABOUT TOWN.

Exit 73.
Pretty fair sleighing.
Measles are prevalent.
The days are lengthening.
And the cold is strengthening.
Are you "receiving" to-day?
THE RECORD, $1.50 a year, C. O. D.
Keep your lamp trimm'd and a-burnin'.
To those who don't read the editorial, we tender the compliments of the season.
There'll be many a slip 'twixt now and spring if folks don't clear their sidewalks.
The sleighing will be good to-day, Ditto the slaying of turkey.

To-night, in the cities, many a fellow will publish his own epitaph in the gutter: Hic Jucet.

We shall perhaps report next week the Bloomfield lady who received the largest number of calls.

C. T. Unangst and Israel Coe of our town are drawn as jurors for the January term of Court.

A religious service, known as Watch-night Meeting, a time honored institution, will be held in the Methodist Church this (Wednesday) evening commencing at 9 o'clock.

W. B. Corby, of the Centre has sold out his market business to John Lees, lately of Rutherford Park. Mr. Corby proposes to devote his energies in future to building. We wish him success.

The press of local affairs this week has outpressed our customary general news. But nothing of astounding import has transpired. Gen. Sickles is coming home and Mr. Cushing will go out as Minister to Spain. The Virginian has gone to the "caves of ocean," Davy Jones having incontinently condemned her in advance of the Custom House folks. She went to the bottom of Wilmington, N. C., on Friday. What new complications of the Cuban question will now arise?

To Delinquent Tax Payers.

After Tuesday the 25 inst., will be the duty of the Collector to add a penalty of 2 per cent a month for unpaid taxes, also fees amounting to thirty-six cents on each tax bill. Persons in arrears will find it to their interest to call and settle.

Springfield celebrates the New Year by lighting her street lamps for the first time.

A party of young men partaking of a supper at the Gloucester City Hall, on Christmas night were made very ill by croton oil which somebody had put in their whiskey.

Seven children fell through the ice on Mile Creek, Jersey City, on Monday, and narrowly escaped drowning. They were rescued by John Lynch and John Masterson, young men living in the neighborhood. Two of the children are in a very precarious condition.

The Kearny Statue is to be unveiled at Trenton with appropriate ceremonies Jan. 21st. Gov. Parker and Cortlandt Parker, Esq., are to be the orators. New Jersey veterans will be present in honor of New Jersey's hero, and the occasion will no doubt be an interesting one.

That was a wholesome as well as a whole sale arrest in New York on Sunday last, when 300 men and women were arrested^{at} at the Union Assembly Rooms, a resort for people of doubtful reputations. A grand Sunday night ball was in full blast when the descent was made. The ball room was profusely ornamented, the music stand being draped with flags and streamers, and the walls festooned with Christmas evergreens. A band of six pieces and a grand piano furnished the music, which was at its liveliest as the police entered. The males who patronized the rooms were mainly under age, few of them over 20, and many not 19. They treated their arrest with an air of bravado and swaggered out with the officers as though they deemed the affair a good joke. Among the women were many young shop girls who wept bitterly at the impending disgrace, and one appealed to the Inspector for her liberty, exclaiming, "Oh, what will mothers say!" The Inspector showed his sorrow in his face, but told her he could not discharge her. "If you had thought of that before you would not have come to this place." The prisoners were all taken to Police Headquarters, and subsequently locked up. The pictures of nearly all the men arrested will be taken, and added to the Rogues' Gallery.
